The screenshot shows a Gmail interface in Chinese. The main email is from support@c9.io, titled "Team webclassroom has invited you to join their team on Cloud9". The email body contains a welcome message and a link to accept the invitation: <https://c9.io/team/invite/9cxcLah1DAlyxZ59GQpC>. A red box highlights the text "Welcome!", the invitation details, and the link. A large grey overlay box at the bottom contains the text "複製並貼上邀請函內附的網址到瀏覽器網址列" (Copy and paste the URL from the invitation into the browser address bar). The interface includes a left sidebar with navigation options like "Compose", "Inbox", and "Labels", and a right sidebar with "Google+ pages" and "Cloud9".

The screenshot shows the Cloud9 signup page. The browser tab is 'Signup - Build Better Apps' and the address bar shows 'c9.io/signup/name'. The page has a blue Cloud9 logo in the top left. The main heading is 'Choose a username'. Below it, a paragraph states: 'Your username is permanent and will be seen in your profile URL and your workspace URLs so choose something timeless and classy.' A red rectangle highlights the 'Username' input field, which contains the text 'student25'. Below the input field, a note says: 'A username can contain letters, numbers and underscore. It cannot contain spaces, -, . and non-alphanumeric characters.' At the bottom of the form area is a green 'Next >' button and a series of five dots, with the second dot from the left being filled, indicating the current step.
